The Story of Passover

3,000 years ago the Jewish people were taken into slavery by the Pharaoh (King) of _____ . The Pharaoh forced the slaves to build huge palaces for him. To rescue his people God spoke to a Jewish shepherd called _____ and sent him to the Pharaoh with the message " _____ !" Moses warned the Pharaoh that God would punish him and his people unless he let the slaves go _____ . The Pharaoh refused and _____ terrible plagues came upon Egypt:

1.	2.
3.	4.
5.	6.
7.	8.
9.	10.

Only after the final plague did the Pharaoh allow the Jews to go. On that last night in Egypt, Moses told the Jews to hold a family meal together and be ready to leave at a moment's notice in case Pharaoh changed his mind. Because they were in a hurry they did not have time to bake bread with _____. Moses told the families to eat _____ and to paint its blood on the _____ of their _____. This was a sign to the Angel of Death to _____ the Jewish houses and not kill their firstborn - and so the festival remembering this event is called Passover (or Pesach in Hebrew) today.
